The Editor of the Spectator admits that he is not the author of the editorials in his paper, which have been directed to the editor of the News, and that he is out the major part of the time and does not do much editorial work, yet he invites us to engage in discussions and controversies with those who dodge behind him. Until he edifies his paper we respectfully decline.

Theodore Hallam and Bill Sweeney are preparing to explode in Louisville.

The fate of Jim Howard, charged with firing the shot that killed Governor Geobel, is now in the hands of the jury. A conviction is expected.

The best thing the extra session could do would be to pass a resolution, giving each member $5 a day the full constitutional time and adjourn sine die.

The Democracy of New York want Mr. Bryan to spend a week campaigning in that State. They have delegated Ex-Gov. Stone to make the arrangement.

South Trimble has decided to accept the Hon. W. B. Moody's proposition to settle the Seventh district nomination by a court decision. Mr. Trimble has filed an injunction suit at Frankfort, which will be specially pushed through the courts, both sides to abide by the decision.

The illustrated edition of the Elizabethtown News is a handsome book of artistic work, doing great credit to the publication, and it is certainly the finest advertisement the thrifty citizens of Hardin county have ever given the advantage of, and they are doubtless proud of the paper that is doing so much to build up their interests.

THIS WAY WE ARE MOVING.

The whole country is wide awake this year when it comes to the contention between the two great political parties. The greatest question now before the American people is that of expansion. The Democratic platform disavows the acquisition of territory in remote countries and the subjugation and enslavement of millions of people. The Democratic nominee does not dodge the issue but comes squarely out and outlines his course if elected. On the other hand, the Republican platform is ambiguous, and its nominee has dodged from one position to another and the people of the country do not know what course he would pursue should he be re-elected. One thing we do know and that is that he has pursued a vacillating course and no man can state what is his real intention as regards to the Philippines. The American people are the arbiters of their foreign complications and the entire settlement depends on whom they choose for President in November. To continue McKinley in power means to continue a war of conquest: It means the establishment of a European Colonial system; the creation of an immense standing army; that the weaker nations must fear where our flag flies. Already there are 65,000 soldiers in the Philippines and yet the war proceeds. This is but the first step towards the creation of an immense army that will be forced into existence just as certain as this government continues its present course. No well informed man can doubt the correctness of this statement, for it is a historical fact that every nation that conquers and subjugates a people by the power of the sword can only retain control by the power of a standing army sufficiently strong to overthrow rebellions. The permanent retention of the Philippines can only be accomplished by military power for no people have ever become the friends of their conquerors and robbers. Do the people of this country want this government to launch out on such a policy? Do they believe it would redound to the interests of succeeding generations? Do they believe it would be in keeping with our past and the spirit of our constitution? Do they believe that this government has any moral or legal right to the ownership of those islands and their inhabitants? Not by any means. The people of the entire country know that our purchased title came from Spain and that Spain had no title to that country by reason of the success of the rebellion aided by American Troops and Marines. They know that we have no moral right because they had never sought alliance but freedom—Independence. They further know that McKinley's course is a sad departure from American policy which has ever been commendable to liberty loving people throughout the world; that it is the greatest mistake of a century of national life of stupendous growth, and that it may be a most fatal leap into the untrodden future. The most sanguine expansionist cannot come with arguments clear from doubts as to the advisability of such a cause, but they say the pace has been set, we must go the gait; the flag has been hoisted, it must not be lowered and various other statements of a similar nature, all appealing to pride and the desire to raise the military splendor of our Government. The other side of the question is presented in that candid open and positive manner backed by the consciousness of knowing that we are not drifting upon untrodden seas whose rocks may wreck our own ship of state or whose tempestuous billows may prove a Waterloo to our peace and prosperity. The anti expansionist has the achievements of a century, recorded in history, to back his contentions against the seizure and control of remote territory and foreign people. He has the constitution, the platform of our Republic, on his side. He has the many failures of Empires and Kingdoms in the administration of colonial government. He has the protests of ever nation or people subjected to carpet bag government from ancient Empires to the present. He has the ever living consciousness of knowing that he is not subverting the God given rights of others: That just governments derive their power from the consent of the governed. He knows that the greed of American capitalists circumscribes the globe and not only seeks a fair profit but absolute political and material servitude. There is not a doubt in the mind of any man but our country was in a better condition prior to its foreign entanglements; that it was in the line of national thrift and progress and going a gait sufficiently fast, and that it had profited by steering clear of outside troubles. Since McKinley has been in power the scene has shifted. Conditions have changed and an Imperialistic system stands glaring and snarling in the face of a peaceful and happy Republic. A continuance of this policy is meeting the stern opposition of many of the ablest Republicans. Men whose love of country transcends that of party, but there is another class of men who though seeing the danger, allow their party allegiance to force them to support this policy, trusting that something may happen to produce a change and drive McKinley from the reef of America's war. Then again there is that great mass, the power of all parties, unmoved in the real nature, the enormity and the far reaching effect of such a policy, as is usual, loyal to their nominees, true to their party and conscious of their own good faith will do all they can for its success. But the brilliant and penetrating light of reason is rapidly discovering the danger to the Philippines to engulf this nation and as a result the tide has turned from the tendency of Imperialism to him who leads the cause of true Americanism. It is hoped, and we believe, that this country may be saved from binding the galling yoke of slavery upon the helpless millions of our fellow beings in the islands of a distant land, and that a true and just recognition of rights may prevail. "Man's inhumanity to man, makes countless millions mourn"—and ill gotten gains soon pass or linger to curse the possessor. Voters study this great question.

YERKES' CIVIL LIBERTY.

The following is an extract from Hon. Bennett H. Yerkes' speech. When you, Mr. Yerkes, on May 18, 1900, indorsed without reserve the "resolute and patriotic" Squirrel of Taylor, and in the name of the Republican party commended and ratified his acts, and on July 18 congratulated him on his efforts and his co-officials in their efforts "to secure the rights of the people," were you then sincere and honest, or were you speaking in a Pickwickian sense?

And do you now endorse all that was done by Taylor and his associates from January to May, 1900, at Frankfort? If you do not, won't you please get off your election hobby-horse long enough to tell us what you do endorse or repudiate?

In answer to all these demands, Mr. Yerkes, who elevates himself on such a high political pedestal, cries back:

"Civil liberty; I want civil liberty; I appeal for civil liberty!"

If you ask Mr. Yerkes if he approves Taylor's use of the militia, his response is "Give me civil liberty or give me death."

If you interrogate him as to pardoning the rowdy mountaineers caught drinking and carrying concealed weapons, his answer is, "Give me civil liberty." If you wish to know if he approves of Taylor filling the executive building with desperadoes and defying the process of the courts, he still exclaims, "I am for civil liberty."

If you want to learn his views as to Taylor's spurious pardons of Powers, Davis and Caltoun, you get the same reply, I am for civil liberty."

If you ask what he has to say of the gross violation of law by Mount and Roosevelt in refusing to surrender a fugitive charged with murder and assassination, you get the same stereotyped response.

If you would like to learn about his views on the adjournment of the Legislature to London, again he says, "I am the voice of one crying for civil liberty." And if you want to know what opinion he has about Taylor's soldiers chasing the Legislature out of the State-house and at the point of the bayonet driving them out of the courthouse in Frankfort, this great political automation answers back, "I am for civil liberty."

"Is this the sort of liberty the Republican candidate for governor wants? Is this the burden of his great soul cry?"

"Facts, truths, experience, speak louder than words. This is not what Mr. Yerkes and his party demand. It is not what Taylor, as its representative, meted out to the people of the State.

We have received a copy of the first issue of the Morning Democrat, a daily paper just started at Lexington. It is edited by Mr. W. P. Walton, one of the best writers in the State, and the paper will surely do great work for the cause of Democracy. If you want your money, pure and undiluted, subscribe for it.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

OUR GLORIOUS COUNTRY.

Have you watched its marvelous growth? If you have, you know that you want to study the strides it has made. The first census of the United States was taken in 1790. Since then every succeeding ten years. The result has been as follows:

Year.	Population.	Year.	Population.
1790.....	3,929,214	1870.....	31,443,321
1800.....	5,308,000	1880.....	39,818,571
1810.....	7,260,000	1890.....	62,979,771
1820.....	9,637,882	1900.....	76,255,997

Here you have the figures of a basis of calculation. The problem now is: What will be the population of the United States, excluding recent acquisitions. The result is usually announced in July of the census year.

THE WEEKLY ENQUIRER is anxious to engage all in a study of their country. To this end it will distribute cash amounting to $25,000, for solutions received of the population of the United States Census, as follows:

To the first nearest correct guess received.....	$2,000.00
To the second.....	1,000.00
To the third.....	500.00
To the fourth.....	250.00
To the fifth.....	100.00
To the sixth.....	50.00
To the seventh.....	25.00
To the eighth.....	10.00
To the ninth.....	5.00
To the tenth.....	2.50
To the eleventh.....	1.25
To the twelfth.....	.625

2197 cash presents amounting to $25,000.00. In case of a tie, money equally divided.

Every guess on the above proposition must be accompanied by a year's subscription to THE WEEKLY ENQUIRER. You can guess as often as you care to induce subscription price to THE WEEKLY ENQUIRER. This contest will close a month before the result of the census will be known and officially certified by the Director of the United States Census at Washington, D. C.

Subscription price for THE WEEKLY ENQUIRER (including guess) is only $1.00 a year. Eleven copies and eleven guesses for $10.00. For full particulars see WEEKLY ENQUIRER. Send all answers to ENQUIRER CO., Cincinnati, Ohio.

The saw-mill which has recently been set near Sparksville by Hogan & Rice is ready to commence cutting timber. They already have a log run enough to make four hundred tons and feet of lumber, and will purchase many more.

Mr. Bryant Nelson, who was a prominent merchant of Russell county, was doing business at Waverly, died last Thursday. He was a man much respected, and his death is regretted throughout the county. He was about 65 years old.

The public highways of Adair county, states reasonable. The day has been worked, and the bad places left will be repaired before cold weather. Nothing pleases the traveling public better than good roads.

Mr. Frank Sanders, who was foreman of the present grand jury, was excused by the Court last Thursday on account of the illness of a member of his family. Mr. Sanders, by V. M. Gowdy, Campbellville, Ky.

Mr. M. R. Powell, of Russell Springs, was in Columbia Saturday. He stated to the news that all the day was being improving with the exception of Mrs. Wilson, who is yet in a critical condition. He also informed us that Mr. Ben Ross, of Edinboro, was lying dangerously ill with flux.

Hon. Geo. Nell celebrated his sixtieth birthday last Sunday. A sumptuous dinner was spread and all kinds of gifts of Columbia and a few special gifts were present. The day was happily spent and the dinner greatly enjoyed. Mr. Nell received a number of useful presents.

We are sorry to report that Russell county is to lose one of her best citizens. Mr. H. H. McLean, who is doing business at Irvine's Store, has purchased a farm near Monticello, and will remove to Wayne county. He will be greatly missed, and his place will be hard to fill.

A living picture, showing the necessity for homes for poor and destitute children was before the people of Columbia last Sunday night. A bright little boy, six years old, who was secured in Casey county, was placed in view of the audience. He was a very interesting sight, and his story was a sad one. He was a child of the street, and his life was a struggle for existence. He was a child of the street, and his life was a struggle for existence. He was a child of the street, and his life was a struggle for existence.

All the material for the Plum Point bridge has arrived, and the structure will be completed by the middle of the month. With this bridge across the river the business of Columbia should be materially enhanced. Before an order was made for the bridge much complaint was made by the citizens because they could not reach this place during a rise in the river. In a few days the bridge will be up, and people living beyond the river are respectfully invited to Columbia to do their trading.

For several years the Baptists have been considering the advisability of establishing a college in the bounds of the Russell's Creek Association. At a meeting of their Association, held at Salem, Taylor county, two weeks ago, a committee, Judge Jas. Garrett, of this city, being one of the members, appointed three, was selected to raise funds for that purpose and to decide upon a location. The building will probably cost $12,000 and $15,000, and Campbellville is anxious to be selected as the place of location. We note, as a Columbia, believing it is the best located town in the bounds of the Association.

Last Thursday morning at Waverly, Russell county, the spirit of J. Bryant Nelson took its flight to the world united by his light. Mr. Nelson had been battling with fever for several days but was unable to overcome it. He was in his 50th year and was an unmarried man. He was a fine and useful citizen, and will be greatly missed in his part of the country. He had been in the mercantile business for a number of years at Waverly, Russell county, being one of the firm of Nelson Bros. Successors of his efforts and his estate is worth several thousand dollars. He was a member of the church, and his funeral services were conducted by Rev. S. B. Perkins at Central Church four miles east of Waverly, Russell county, and the body was placed in the graveyard at that place, in a large casket, and will be buried here on the 17th of this month.

Several weeks ago we announced that on the 17th of this month Columbia would begin to receive another daily mail. We understand that no bid sent in was accepted by the Postmaster General, all of them being considered too high. Mr. J. B. Barbee, of this place, forwarded the lowest bid, and was awarded the contract. It is between him and the Department, and an agreement may be reached.

Last Sunday the 22nd, at the home of Rev. L. Dunbar, in Russell county, Mr. John Woodbridge and Miss Mollie Woodbridge were united in marriage. Woodbridge is a young man of good habits, a thrifty farmer and a gentleman. The bride is an accomplished daughter of the late Albert Hughes and possesses all the charms for making life worth living. The news extends congratulations.

Asa Turner, of color, was tried last Friday for maliciously cutting Charles Coffey. Mr. Coffey, who is a colored man, said that the trouble occurred in Adair, several years ago. It seems that Coffey had the dark undergarment and that trouble occurred in Adair, resulting in the prisoner's arrest, cutting the other about the face. On the witness stand the darky told a story of self defense which was corroborated by Mr. John Williams and others who testified. The jury was not out a few moments, returning a verdict of acquittal.

Invitations to be present at the marriage of Mr. Charles E. Runyan, of Chicago, Ill., to Miss Cora Lee Bower, of Jeffersonville, Ind., have been received at this place. The ceremony will be performed Wednesday, October 21, at 6:30 p. m. Miss Bower is a cousin of Mrs. E. G. Atkins. Mr. Geo. Walford and Miss Mott Walford, this city, She is also very pleasantly remembered by her many friends made during her recent visit to Columbia.

The Farmers Home Fire Insurance Company, Junction City, Ky., $200,000 strong. Insures all kinds of property except snuff mills, hemp and tobacco. Losses paid promptly. Agents: J. M. Seaples, Union District. T. A. McReel, Agent.

A. N. Wells, for many years with the Continental, General Manager.

The trial of Porter Fletcher for entering Miss Alice Wooten was set into last Friday and the case was given to the jury Monday afternoon, after being argued by Mr. J. A. Smith and Hon. J. F. Montgomery for the defense, and Mr. Rollin Hurt and Commonwealth's Attorney Aaron for the State. The jury voted the case about 4 o'clock Monday afternoon and Tuesday forenoon they reported that they could not agree, and were discharged. The jury stood, nine for conviction, three for an acquittal.

Rev. G. W. Perryman, of Middleboro, will be in Columbia to-morrow night and will preach at the Baptist Church. He is a native of Adair county, a logical and interesting speaker, and a large congregation should greet him.

Since writing the above Mr. Perryman has decided, at the request of friends, to deliver his lecture, subject, "A Live Wire" at the court-house on the night mentioned above. He will not preach. No admission to the lecture.

Mr. J. W. Gardner, District Superintendent of the Kentucky Children's Home Society, has been in our midst several days, and last Sunday night at the Presbyterian Church he gave an exposition of the workings of the Society. Rev. T. F. Walton, in a short and well-worked talk introduced Mr. Gardner, who said in part: "The institution was founded for the purpose of caring for poor and destitute children. By legal proceedings children of a county without homes are placed with the society, the society finding them suitable homes, in well-regulated families. Children who are in the poor-house are taken therefrom and frequently adopted by influential and wealthy families. Mr. Gardner had two little boys with him, one from Breckinridge county, the other from Green county. He has carried five from Green county to the home, several from Taylor, has the promise of twelve from Russell and will doubtless have several from Adair. He is doing a grand work, and so well placed were our people with his presentation of it, that a large board was organized, and fifty dollars subscribed for his cause.

It is often said that Columbia is the best that part of Kentucky where broadness abound and men grow. The Speaking Monday.

Last Monday afternoon Hon. John W. Oliver, Democratic Elector for the Eleventh District, and Hon. Ben V. Smith, Democratic candidate for Congress in said district, spoke to a crowd of about 250 voters in the court-house. Mr. Oliver spoke first and presented many reasons why every man who is in favor of honest government, both State and National should vote the Democratic ticket. He took up the State issues showing that the Democrats were right upon every proposition now agitating the minds of the people. How they had cheerfully submitted to the courts and how they were sustained upon every proposition. He spoke of Taylor and his gang who foully murdered Governor Geobel, the abuse of the pardoning power and Taylor's flight from the State. He showed how they had stolen the election of 1892 by McKinley's imperialistic policy, telling the people that such a course was bound to lead them to a monarchial form of government. His whole speech was argumentative and convincing.

Hon. Ben V. Smith followed Mr. Oliver, and made a splendid telling speech in advocacy of Democratic principles. He urged the Democrats to be diligent, promising to cut down the leaves and rotten stock in the Government. Mr. Smith came to Adair comparatively a stranger, but his speech aroused his friends and the Democrats will support him to a man.

Altgeld's Warning.

Former Governor John P. Altgeld warns the Democratic National Committee to watch the count of ballots next November. He declares Republicans are depending on fraud and crime at the polls to carry the election and for that purpose have raised $25,000,000 from trusts. Democratic managers, however, do not take kindly to the scheme. But they say they will keep better watch this year than they did in 1896.

Mr. Altgeld made a statement, part of which follows:

"In 1888 Cleveland carried Kentucky by about 843,000 majority. In 1896 Mr. Bryan got about 43,000 more votes than had been cast for Cleveland, so he evidently carried the State in the neighborhood of 80,000 votes. Yet it was counted for McKinley. This was accomplished by means of false returns and wholesale frauds committed in Louisville and in the mountain districts which were Republican.

"Careful examination of the returns from Ohio in 1896 showed there were from 50,000 to 70,000 fraudulent votes counted. In Indiana there were between 30,000 and 40,000 more votes returned than were legally cast. In Illinois every method of fraud was practiced that was known to man.

"In Chicago careful comparison of the vote returned in 1896 with the vote of prior years shows in the neighborhood of 72,000 more votes returned than were honestly cast at that election, and for the entire State upward of 100,000 fraudulent votes were returned. I do not believe Republicans can practice frauds this year on such a wholesale plan as they did in 1896.

"We feel these crimes can be prevented. I believe that if our people will press vigilance committees in every precinct of this country, make careful lists of all legal voters, and then take position inside the booths when the counting is in progress and see there is no false count made, and that votes cast for the Democratic ticket are not counted for Republican candidates, then we will sweep the country from one end to the other. Republicans will not be able to carry eight States in the Union.

As A Wolf In Sheep's Clothing.

Bishop Turner, of Georgia, the head of the African M. E. Church, has deserted the Republican party and declared for Bryan. He says:

"In its treatment of the colored man the Republican party has always masqueraded as a wolf in sheep's clothing. Since the time that party claims to have freed the slaves its managers have constantly lied to the colored man. When Lincoln died, Republican honesty to the colored race was interred with his bones, and an era of Republican moral degeneracy began.

Contrary to the emotional idea that the Republican party has an unlimited mortgage on the suffrages of the colored men, I say that that organization should be everlastingly grateful to the colored race. The Republican party is the child of that race. Through Lincoln's honest championship of the enslaved people that party was born. Through the colored man's gratitude it was bred. The black man behind the gun turned the tide of the rebellion, thus insuring the power of the party. The black man was used as a political tool in the South during the carpetbag regime and temporarily sacrificed his social safety. For 33 years he has delivered his vote to the Republican party like a poor man gives his pound of flesh to a Shylock."

No objection can be made to legitimate competition, but under Republican rule competition has been supplanted by a combination of capital, whereby the larger and richer corporations crowd out the weaker, and in this way create monopolies which fix prices to the detriment of laboring people. The trust, which is a creation of Republican legislation, benefits those only who are best able to take care of themselves. The wage earners, who constitute the bulk of the voting population, are put to disadvantage by the class legislation which has always characterized the Republican party.

A young man of the Shakerston neighborhood had a cigarette lit here court day, says the Harrodsburg Democrat; and another young man suffered a similar misfortune in Burgin Saturday. Only a few weeks ago another Mercer county boy was struck with a number of fits caused by the deadly "cotton smokers," and yet, after all, just as many cigarettes are sold and will continue to be sold as long as there are boys to smoke them. A boy who contracts the evil habit not only risks his health, but stands a poor chance of securing employment, as many companies have decided not to employ any one given to this habit.

The unwieldiness of throwing stones has been shown lately in three of the Northern States. The Southern portion of the Union has had to stand a good many thrusts from the other half, because of the frequent lynchings that have stained their escutcheons, but Illinois, Ohio and New York have been the scenes—almost within a few weeks—of mobs as disgraceful as any that ever darkened the South. This tendency to visit punishment on offenders without the by-your-leave of law, may in the end bring forth good. While justice may be blind she isn't always deaf, and the click of silver will make her prick up her ears. That is why people are looking faith in the scales that should weigh without fear and without favor. This is probably one reason for the frequent lynchings throughout the country and they may finally bring the courts to a realization that mere technicalities (stretched in many cases to fit the occasion) ought not to count so much as the righteousness of a cause. Courts are institutions for the protection of the innocent and the punishment of the guilty, but how often, through undue influence, favor, or some other potent reason, is it turned into a favor? No wonder people are beginning to feel a defiance for the provisions of the law. Mobs will never cease to gather until confidence has been restored and people feel that a criminal will suffer full measure for his crime, committed thereby by a court that is merciful in its justice, but unwavering as the wrath of God, in its duty.

Wonderful Eight
Cures cholera, diarrhoea, colic, cramps, lunacy, sprains, lumbago, swellings, pains in the head or body, neuralgia, rheumatism and toothache, all pain internal or external cured quicker with Morley's Wonderful Eight than any other remedy. Free trial bottles at W. M. Bell's Joppa.

A widower down east felt keenly the death of his wife. She was a good woman and he mourned for her taking off constantly. He had a handsome monument erected at the head of her grave, and thereon placed this beautiful inscription: "The light of my life has gone out." In the course of a year he met and married a woman who very much resembled his first wife. In order that she might not feel too keenly the position in which she was placed he decided to the inscription on the monument: "But I have struck another match.—Freeport Journal."

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one deadly disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

The trial of James Howard, of Clay county, accused of the murder of Gov. Goebel, may cause another outbreak of the Baker-Howard. White feed in Clay county. Many of the Baker faction have gone to Frankfort to testify against Howard, and when they return to Clay county trouble is looked for between them and the Howards. It will be remembered that in this bloody feud, that covered a period of more than two years, it was charged that James Howard killed George B. Ker. A few months ago the friends of the feudists persuaded them to cease hostilities and allow all indictments against either side to be dismissed.

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunk in, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 75c., guaranteed at T. E. Paull's drug store.

What is the use of a man, because he has not realized his expectations, sitting around the office and finding fault with the entire social structure of things in general? The best thing for that man to do is to get up and hustle. We can't all have a world made to suit us and I think the best plan is to take things as we find them and make the most of what there is. We can all get a little something out of our life if we don't consume too much of our thought and energy in grumbling over things that cannot be helped.

The great success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the treatment of bowel complaints has made it standard over the greater part of the civilized world. For sale by M. Craven.

August Prange, an organ builder of Louisville, was thrown from a buggy and killed.

A Word to Mothers.

Mothers of children affected with croup or a severe cold need not hesitate to administer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It contains no opiate nor narcotic in any form and may be given as confidently to the babe as to an adult. The great success that has attended its use in the treatment of colds and croup has won for it the approval and praise it has received throughout the United States and in many foreign lands. For sale by M. Craven.

A preacher at Fort Scott, Kansas, delivered a brief but truthful funeral sermon the other day. Here it is: "A word to you all. Post mortem praises are in the air. People kiss their dead who never stop to kiss their living. They hover over an open casket in hysterical sob, but fail to throw their arms around their loved ones who are fighting the stern battles of life. A word of cheer to the struggling soul in life is worth more than all the roses of Christendom piling high over casket covers."

James Dudley, colored, a religious fanatic, held up three teams on a country road four miles from Henderson. The negro frightened the drivers from two of the wagons. When the third team came along the maniac ordered the driver, Lon Perkins, to halt, but instead of complying Perkins drew a revolver. The crazy man advanced on Perkins until he received a bullet in his left lung. The negro will die.
